WHERE NORTH EAST INDIA COMES TO THE TABLE

BRAND STORY:

Nestled in the vibrant hills and valleys of North East India lies a culinary tradition as diverse as its people. Our restaurant was born from a deep love for this region's food—flavorful bamboo shoots, smoked meats, fresh herbs, and ancestral cooking methods passed down through generations. We are more than just a place to eat; we are a celebration of identity, history, and community.

At our table, guests discover the soulful essence of states like Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur, and beyond—each dish a tribute to our roots. Whether you're tasting smoked pork for the first time or reliving the comfort of home, we invite you to experience North East India with every bite.

MISSION:

To bring the rich, diverse flavors of North East India to the world by offering authentic, home-style dishes made with traditional ingredients and heartfelt hospitality, creating a space where culture and cuisine come together.

VISION:

To be the leading destination for North East Indian cuisine, celebrating the heritage of the region while innovating with pride, and fostering cultural appreciation through every plate we serve.

OUR SIGNATURE DISHES

Smoked Pork/Beef with Bamboo Shoot & Akhuni :

Rs.530/-

A traditional Naga delicacy crafted with smoked pork or beef, slow-cooked with tender bamboo shoots and akhuni — a pungent, fermented soybean paste known for its bold umami flavor. This earthy, aromatic dish captures the essence of Northeast Indian tribal cuisine, rich in heritage and depth of taste.

Pigeon Gravy (Naga Style)

Rs.450/-

A traditional delicacy made with free-range pigeon, slowcooked in a spiced gravy with mustard leaves. Known for its rich, gamey flavor and nutritious value, this dish offers a bold, rustic taste rooted in indigenous culinary traditions.

Local Chicken Gravy (Naga Style)

Rs.450/-

A hearty and wholesome dish made with free-range country chicken, simmered slowly in a rich, spiced gravy with tender mustard leaves. This rustic preparation brings out the natural flavors of the meat and greens — simple, earthy, and full of traditional goodness.

Duck Gravy (Naga Style)

Rs.450/-

Spicy Duck Gravy is a rich, hearty dish featuring tender duck pieces simmered in a flavorful thick sauce made with Mustard Leaf, onions, tomatoes, ginger, garlic, black pepper, and fresh chillies.

Pork Ribs with Mashed Potato and Boiled Vegetables

Rs.599/-

Tender, fall-off-the-bone pork ribs, slow-roasted and glazed with a rich, smoky BBQ sauce, served alongside buttery, whipped mashed potatoes for the ultimate comfort pairing.

Smoke Pork with Akhuni/ Bamboo Shoot Fry

Rs.420/-

Aromatic smoked pork tossed with fermented Akhuni or Fermented bamboo shoots, delivering a rich, smoky, and earthy flavor that celebrates the bold tastes of Northeastern cuisine.

Traditional Naga Cuisine & Food Stalls

You'll find dozens of local food stalls and community kitchens offering authentic tribal dishes from various Naga tribes. These are not just snacks - they're deep cultural expressions.

Popular foods include:

Smoked pork — often cooked with bamboo shoots for a smoky,

Earthy flavor. Axone (fermented soybean) — used in curries, chutneys with a bold aroma and rich taste

Galho — a comforting rice porridge with vegetables and meat.

Sticky rice and millet dishes served traditionally.

Rice beer (Zutho/Thutse) — traditional locally brewed beverage often enjoyed with meals.

If you enjoyed the bold and authentic flavors of Naga Cuisine, we would love to hear from you. Your feedback helps us preserve tradition, improve our service, and serve you better every time.
